Vocabulary	Continue to use and understand recently introduced vocabulary during discussions about stories, nonfiction, rhymes and poems and during role play	Able to use clues from the teacher to unpick the meanings of new words. Use Pre-teach model to develop children's vocabulary. Vocabulary carefully selected from key texts.	Discuss word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known. Understand books they have read and listened to by drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary.	Comprehension
Inference	In a books read together, children are able to understand how the main characters are feeling and can share why they think this.	Growing confidence in using their knowledge of the world to support simple inferences - character feelings, why events have happened.	To make a range of inferences based on age-appropriate books.	I can develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:
Predict	Anticipate key events in stories based on what they know has happened so far. Know and understand the word prediction.	Growing confidence in creating own predictions. Able to share predictions orally with explanations for their thinking. Able to link what is read to their own experiences.	Understand what they have read by predicting what might happen based on what has been done or said so far.	Listening to and discussing a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which I can read independently. Being encouraged to link what I have read or heard read to my own experiences.
Explain	Familiar with some traditional tales and can talk about the main features of these.	Able to explain the key features of traditional tales and familiar stories.	Explain clearly their understanding of what is being read to them, responding confidently to a range of questions to demonstrate their understanding.	Becoming very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics. Recognising and joining in with predictable phrases.
Retrieve	Have an understanding of some familiar stories and can recall some of the key details.	Able to find key information in a text through structured discussion & scaffolding from the teacher.	Participate in discussion about what is being read through retrieving key information. Able to locate key information in a text through guided discussion.	Learning to appreciate rhymes and poems, and to recite some by heart. Discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known.
Sequence	Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary.	Use structured resources provided to explain the sequence of the main events of a story – using picture prompts, sentence stems. (Using books from the school Year 1 Reading Spine)	Be very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics.	I can understand both the books I can already read accurately and fluently and those I listen to by:
Range of reading & Fluency	Range of texts Pupils should be taught to develop positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by: - Having opportunities to read books and authors they might not choose themselves, and be taught to exercise choice in selecting books, with teachers making use of library services and other expertise. - Listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or text books - Increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally - Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes. - Participating in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say. Ongoing development of fluency including: Accuracy, Automaticity and Prosody through strategies such as choral reading, echo reading and repeated oral reading.			Drawing on what I already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by my teacher. Checking that the text makes sense to me as I read and correcting any inaccurate reading. Discussing the significance of the title and events. Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done. Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far. I can participate in discussion about what is read to me, taking turns and listening to what others say. I can explain clearly my understanding of what is read to me.

Termly Progression: Year 2

Term	Autumn	Spring	Summer	National Curriculum
Strategies	Multiple reading strategies actively modelled throughout the reading curriculum: Activate & Connect (background knowledge), Monitor & Clarify, questioning. Chdn to practise and apply these.			Word Reading
Word Reading *Books matched with phonics *Chdn re-read to build their fluency	All children engage in the Read, Write, Inc. Phonics Programme Begin to read and recognise words containing common suffixes. Continue to build knowledge of common exception words. Consolidate and embed Year 1 expectations (See previous page) respond speedily with the correct sound to graphemes (letters or groups of letters) for all 40+ phonemes, including, where applicable, alternative sounds for graphemes	All children engage in the Read, Write, Inc. Phonics Programme Growing confidence in decoding which is becoming more automatic. Reading fluency is developing. Continue to read accurately by blending the sounds in words that contain graphemes taught so far. Read with increasing accuracy words of two or more syllables. Developing to move away from blending with more emphasis on sight recognition and fluency.	All children engage in the Read, Write, Inc. Phonics Programme See Word Reading expectations (Right)	Continue to apply phonic knowledge and skills as a route to decode words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent. Read accurately by blending the sounds in words that contain the graphemes taught so far, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes. Read accurately words of two or more syllables that contain the same graphemes as above. Read words containing common suffixes. Read further common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word. Read most words quickly and accurately, without overt sounding and blending, when they have been frequently encountered. Read aloud books closely matched to my improving phonics knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation. Re-read these books to build up my fluency and confidence in word reading.
Vocabulary	Growing confidence in explaining the meaning of new words in context. Retrieval practice supports children to embed the learning of new word meanings.	Use Pre-teach model to develop children's vocabulary even further. Vocabulary carefully selected from key texts, making use of Tier two vocabulary. Children's vocabulary continues to develop.	Discuss and clarify the meanings of new words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary provided by the teacher. Understand what they have read and listened to by drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.	Comprehension I can develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:
Inference	Able to unpick character's actions and feelings and can explain their thinking through discussion. Drawing on wider background knowledge & experience to support thinking.	Becoming more confident in reading a text and then making some inferences. Focus on character actions, feelings and key events.	Can answer questions and make some inferences in a book they have read fluently.	Listening to, discussing and expressing views about a wide range of contemporary and classic poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which I can read independently.
Predict	Able to discuss and explore what might happen next in text.	Able to discuss and explore what might happen next in a text, providing reasons for thinking.	Predict what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far.	Discussing the sequence of events in books and how items of information are related. Becoming increasingly familiar with and retelling a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales.
Explain	Able to explain the meaning of new words in context linked to familiar texts read in Year 2. Begin to discuss and unpick how language is used for effect.	Able to recognise and discuss key themes in familiar texts such as: good overcomes evil, triumph over challenge. Able to discuss how language is used for effect.	Identify and explain key aspects of fiction and non-fiction texts such as characters, events, titles and information.	Being introduced to non-fiction books that are structured in different ways. Recognising simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry. Discussing and clarifying the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary. Discussing my favourite words and phrases.
Retrieve	Developing the skills of scanning to locate information in a text that has been read and discussed. Growing confidence in locating key information.	Apply scanning skills to non-fiction texts to find key facts and information.	Retrieve and record key information and key details from fiction and non-fiction texts both verbally and in writing. Able to confidently retrieve from a range of texts.	Continuing to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear.
Sequence	Recap on the process of 'sequencing' & consolidate understanding using Year 2 texts. Use of scaffolds to support thinking such as sentence starters, image prompts.	Developing confidence in sequencing the main events of new Year 2 texts. Able to unpick and make changes if presented with a deliberate incorrect sequence	Identify and explain the sequence of events in a text confidently. Read a series of events and number these correctly to show the order in which they happen. (Using Year 2 texts from the school reading spine)	I can understand both the books I can already read accurately and fluently and those I listen to by: Drawing on what I already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by my teacher.
Range of reading & Fluency	Range of texts Pupils should be taught to develop positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by: - Having opportunities to read books and authors they might not choose themselves, and be taught to exercise choice in selecting books, with teachers making use of library services and other expertise. - Listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or text books - Increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally - Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes. - Participating in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say. Ongoing development of fluency including: Accuracy, Automaticity and Prosody through strategies such as choral reading, echo reading and repeated oral reading.			Checking that the text makes sense to me as I read and correcting any inaccurate reading. Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done. Answering and asking questions. Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far. I can participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to me and those that I can read to myself, taking turns and listening to what others say. I can explain and discuss my understanding of books, poems and other materials, both those that I listen to and those that I can read to myself.

Termly Progression: Year 3

Term	Autumn	Spring	Summer	National Curriculum
Strategies	Multiple reading strategies actively modelled throughout the reading curriculum: Activate & Connect (background knowledge), Monitor & Clarify, questioning. Chdn to practise and apply these.			Word Reading
Word Reading	Recap prior learning of root words, prefixes and suffixes. Recognise these word parts in key vocabulary. Building on from KS1, begin to read further common exception words.	Use of root words, prefixes and suffixes support to read aloud new words. Continue to read further exception words and discuss how they may sound different to the spelling.	Use developing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to read aloud new words and begin to understand the meaning of these words. Read further exception words (Yr3), noticing the difference between spelling and sound.	Apply my growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words. Read further exception words, noticing the difference between spelling and sound.
Vocabulary	Recap strategies for working out the meanings of unfamiliar words. Pre-teach meanings of unfamiliar words and provide opportunities to learn and apply new words in context.	Regular opportunities to check for understanding through discussion about a text. Unpick the meaning of new words. Begin to explore how words and phrases make the reader feel: 'Read as a reader'.	Growing confidence to check that a text makes sense, discussing understanding and meaning of words in context. Begin to accurately use dictionaries and knowledge organisers to check the meaning of words they have read.	Comprehension Listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks. Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes. Using dictionaries to check the meaning of words I have read. Becoming more familiar with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally. Identifying themes and conventions in a wide range of books. Preparing poems and play scripts to read aloud and to perform, showing my understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action. Discussing words and phrases that capture the reader's interest and imagination. Recognising some different forms of poetry (for example, free verse, narrative poetry)
Inference	Recap prior learning on making inference on the basis of what is being said and done. Begin to make inferences about characters in Year 3 texts based on speech and actions	Begin to use background knowledge and clues from the text to support inferences. Share reasons for inferences both verbally and in written form.	Become more confident in using background knowledge and clues from the text to create well-thought out inferences. Check own inferences are accurate by finding evidence in the text.	Checking that the text makes sense to me, discussing my understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context. Asking questions to improve my understanding of a text. Drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence.
Predict	Recap prior learning from KS1 on making predictions based on what has been read so far. Begin to apply learning to new texts	Unpick the main events from a text so far and use this information to make a plausible prediction about what might happen next.	Link to learning around inference. Prediction is a type of inference. Discuss how predictions could be made from details that are implied.	Predicting what might happen from details stated and implied. Identifying main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and summarising these.
Explain	Recap learning from KS1 on explaining key aspects of fiction and non-fiction texts. Begin to apply to new texts.	Explore strategies to check that a text makes sense. Provide opportunity to use strategies with familiar texts including unpicking the meaning of new words.	Growing confidence in checking the text makes sense by discussing understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context. Verbally and in written form.	Identifying how language, structure, and presentation help me to understand the meaning of a text.
Retrieve	Recap learning from KS1 on finding key information in fiction and non-fiction texts. Begin to apply learning to new texts.	Begin to locate and record key information in non-fiction such as dates and key facts.	Able to locate and record key information in fiction texts and poetry such as events specific details about characters.	I can retrieve and record information from non-fiction.
Summarise	Recap prior learning on sequencing key events from a text from KS1. Begin to introduce the concept of summarising and model this with short extracts of familiar texts.	After multiple readings of a text to support understanding, verbally summarise the key points.	After multiple readings of a text to support understanding, summarise the key points both verbally and in written form.	I can participate in discussion about both books that are read to me and those I can read for myself, taking turns and listening to what others say.
